WESTERLY MAN INJURED

Frank W. Coy Thrown from Carriage Thursday Evening
—George Joseph Ordered to Pay $500 Damages for Assault—D. A. R. Prizes Essay Subjects Announced—Miss Willard to Wed Frederick N. Robinson.

Mary P. Blanchard has brought suit for trespass against J. Irving Maxson. Although the amount of damages claimed is comparatively small, $90, the case is liable to prove of unusual interest, and indications are that it will be bitterly contested and presumably be taken to the higher courts. Mrs. Blanchard and Mr. Maxson own adjoining properties in Mechanic street, Pawcatuck, and the dispute is of the boundary line nature. Mrs. Blanchard wanted a dividing fence and had one built. Mr. Maxson wanted no fence, and had the one built by order of Mrs. Blanchard torn down, and the material placed in her front yard, this work being done while Mrs. Blanchard was away. Judge Herbert W. Rathbun, attorney for Mrs. Blanchard, issues the writ, returnable to Justice James E. Kennedy on Saturday of next week.

Governor Aram J. Pothier has announced that he will reappoint the members of his staff and his executive secretary when he receives his certificate of election. Under a special provision of the new militia law the aides de camp will retain their titles of colonel. The new law contains a provision making the title of a member of the governor's personal staff lieutenant colonel, but a clause is inserted that the provision should not apply to the personal staff of Governor Pothier during the present term or in case of his re-election.

Frank W. Coy while driving from his office to his home, Thursday evening, was seriously injured. The horse was going at a lively clip, as horses generally do when being driven towards their home stable. When in Elm street, near School, and where the street is dimly lighted, the Coy carriage struck the heavy wagon from the Reuter farm, which contained the boss farmer and two workmen. The collision was of sufficient force to wreck the Coy carriage and free the horse, and Mr. Coy was thrown head foremost in a heap on the hard macadam road. Mr. Coy, being a very heavy man, received a severe shock and was rendered unconscious. He was taken into the residence of Charles H. Stanton, where he was attended by Dr. John Champlin and subsequently removed to his home. Mr. Coy has difficulty in breathing, and complains of severe pain in the right front side of the body and in the back. It is thought that there was pressure of the front of the ribs upon the liver. Careful examination showed that there was no special paralysis, as Mr. Coy can use both arms and legs. His condition is considered serious, though signs of improvement were noticeable Friday afternoon. As soon as the Coy home was freed the animal ran direct to the stable. Mr. Coy says he was wholly to blame for the accident, as there was ample room to pass the Reuter team on the right side of the road.

The occupants of the Reuter wagon were thrown out and the driver was cut in the right knee and injured in the shoulder.

Aside from a cut in the face, of no injurious importance, Mr. Coy bears no outward signs of injury. At the last meeting of the board of trade Mr. Coy was selected a committee to go to Vermont and investigate a manufacturing concern that was considering removal to Westerly. He was to have started on that mission in a few days.

There was a slight blaze in the residence of Joseph S. Grilla, in Canal street, Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, which was quickly extinguished. Some one sent in the fire alarm from box 57 and the department responded. There was no need for the alarm or for the services of the firemen.

The Pawcatuck Improvement and Taxpayers' society in annual meeting elected these officers: John W. Donohue, president; Elmer E. Vincent, vice president; J. Perry Clark, secretary; Amos E. Burdick, treasurer; Albert G. Martin, Michael Higgins, Edwin Whitford, Herbert L. Boxie, Oscar L. Wilcox, executive committee; Albert R. Stillman, Charles E. Stewart, Albert G. Martin, committee on laws.

The report of Treasurer Burdick showed a balance of cash on hand of $25.51. Andrew McGowan was appointed a committee to confer with the selectmen of the town of Stonington relative to improving the street condition near the Hyde place in Stillman avenue. It was voted that the collection of membership dues be omitted for the current year.

At the conclusion of the business session refreshments were served.

The case of Amanda Boyer against George Joseph, an action of trespass by assault, occupies the greater part of the attention of Judge Oliver H. Williams in the Third district court, Friday. The accused was charged with making an indecent assault upon Mrs. Boyer at her home. Joseph was adjudged guilty and ordered to pay damages of $500 and costs. It is probable that an appeal will be taken to the superior court.

The civil action of James Collins against Alexander McCrea, which has been in court since August, 1908, was returned to the general docket. All other cases were continued.

After a long illness Mrs. Sarah Lenihan died from a complication of diseases Friday morning at her home, No. 68 Stillman avenue. She was the widow of John Lenihan, who died suddenly in St. Michael's church about four years ago, and was in the 54th year of her age. Mrs. Lenihan is survived by five sons and two daughters, James, Thomas, John, Joseph, William, Mary and Sarah Lenihan; also by two brothers and three sisters, James Cramer of Providence and John Cramer of Westerly. Mrs. Jane Mcweeney of Providence, and Mrs. John T. Campbell and Mrs. Arthur Ames of Pawcatuck.

Mrs. William A. Hillard read an interesting paper at the regular meeting of Phoebe Greene Ward chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and the nominating committee presented a list of candidates for officers to be balloted for at the next meeting. The subjects for prize essays to be competed for by pupils of the Westerly High school, under the customary conditions, were announced as follows: Five Noble Women of the Revolution; Our Foreign Relations During the Revolution; Rhode Island's Part in the Revolution.

EVIDENCE OF PROSPERITY

We have, from time to time, shown in our advertising, comparative statements of our condition. This, we believe, is of interest to the general public, and especially so to our customers, who have, by their patronage, contributed to our

GROWTH MEASURED BY DOLLARS.

The figures given are from our statements made public in response to the calls of the Bank Commissioners.

	June 9th, 1903	Jan. 11th, 1905	May 20th, 1907	Sept. 30th, 1909
Deposits	$118,136.98	$291,038.92	$538,030.62	$830,527.08
Assets	292,284.46	469,142.90	798,790.20	1,000,413.10

An increase of over 700 per cent. in about six years.

This development is particularly gratifying to us because of the fact that a very large proportion of this gain in deposits is new business created by our special effort and facilities and not attracted from other institutions, as is evidenced by the continual increase of deposits in every bank in Norwich.

GROWTH MEASURED BY SERVICE.

Increase of deposits result from growing balances in old accounts and the acquisition of new ones. We gauge our value to this community by the number of people we serve, and by the quality of the service, and we feel that the one attests the other.

June 9th, 1903, our depositors numbered 277 with deposits of $118,136.98
Sept. 1st, 1909, our depositors numbered 1931 with deposits of $830,527.08

The facilities that have secured these results are yours for the asking. They include ample security, prompt and courteous attention and equipment for every banking need.

In Response to Repeated Requests for the convenience of our customers in Commercial Department, who need to protect Saturday receipts, and Savings Department customers who cannot call in usual banking hours, without loss of 1909, this bank will beginning November 6th, 1909, from 7:30 to 9 o'clock, and on those days will close promptly at noon, giving Norwich the service rendered by many banks in the larger cities.
